

Our Vision

To be a faithful, growing church that demonstrates true community, deep Christian spirituality and a passion for justice. (Micah 6:8)

I send you greetings on December 11th as I write my Pastor's Note to you.

So, as I write this, I'm filing through my mind thinking of all the things I need to accomplish today.

Coffee
Devotions
Trash Day
Breakfast
Office
Christmas Cards
Pastor's Note
Phone Calls
Lunch

And that's all before 11:45 am this morning. Sort of a normal day for me, I guess.

Do you keep a TO DO or CHECK LIST handy? Maybe you're like me and at times it's a NEVER DONE list. That seems so defeating at times doesn't it?

I don't normally operate without a TO DO list and the main reason is that I need that in front of me to keep me going. We all have lots to do, right? At least if we write out our daily activities it adds up pretty quickly and shows we've accomplished a goodly amount. Or does it?

How's your stress level these days? Is your worry meter at its max level?
How's your physical and psychological wellbeing? How's your spiritual heartbeat these days?

I hate to remind you, but Santa Claus is coming to town! As a kid those were the most wonderful words and as an adult there is fear and terror that engulfs me when I hear those six words!

How's your Christmas list? Is your shopping done? Are you planning a get together? Are you traveling? How's the old budget holding out? Do you pay cash, or do you charge everything? Don't forget the stocking stuffers! Oh, I almost forgot! It will be a COVID Christmas! Are you about to pull your hair out yet?

What if with all that we have going on we pump the brakes, put it in park, and STOP? What if? Would we be any less productive or more stressed if we stopped for 60 seconds?

Set a timer for one minute if you are able. Lights off, no TV, no phone, no radio, pull the blinds if you can. Sit down, empty your mind (that's the easy part for me), close your eyes, and listen to yourself breathe. Listen as to hear your heartbeat. You didn't forget your timer, did you?

~Pastor's Note~

CHECKING OUR LIST

Somewhere on our To Do and Check Lists we really need to begin scheduling a STOP! Yes, you can do two minutes if you want. I know a man who lives in a sunny state who stops for a whole 15 minutes at a time and has done it for years!

You see beloved we are so conditioned to GO, GO, GO we forget that we need to take time to STOP.

I could suggest that we ought to stop doing a number of things, but really, we need to figure that out for ourselves. As recently as this week I happened upon one of my least favorite verses. Romans 12:1 Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship.

For me this is a verse that makes me stop and take notice. It's not that the passage speaks to me so profoundly that I struggle with. It's the challenge before me that I can't seem to get my mind (my heart) around. It's a real ringing of the bell, take notice of your life kind of verse.

For me to allow Jesus to be Lord of every area of my life seems like a pretty tall order. But honestly, I know it begins with me being willing to STOP. Stop the this and the that, to make room for the expanse that Jesus wants to create in me.

I pray, "Create in me a new heart O God and renew a right spirit within me", all the time. But I'm going to have to STOP getting in the way for God to accomplish this in me. Is it possible that I'm really this thick headed? I'll answer that for you, yes!

I know the Apostle Paul spoke of the would-a, could-a, should-a's in Romans 7:13-25¹³ Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! Nevertheless, in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it used what is good to bring about my death, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.¹⁴ We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin.¹⁵ I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do.¹⁶ And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good.¹⁷ As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me.¹⁸ For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out.¹⁹ For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing.²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.²¹ So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me.²² For in my inner being I delight in God's law;²³ but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me.²⁴ What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death?²⁵ Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in my sinful nature a slave to the law of sin.

I so identify with this passage in my own life and because I do I credit the work of the holy Spirit for working in me and building in me a desire to STOP.

Our Mission

To be and to share the Good News of Jesus Christ, witnessing, loving and serving from our doorsteps "to the ends of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

Today's TO DO List for me! STOP getting in the way of the good work that the Lord is doing in you. Receive in full the work of the Holy Spirit. STOP, so you can restart and be refreshed and allow Jesus to be the Lord of every area of your life.

Take time to be holy, speak oft with thy Lord;
Abide in Him always, and feed on His Word.
Make friends of God's children, help those who are weak,
Forgetting in nothing His blessing to seek.

Take time to be holy, the world rushes on;
Spend much time in secret, with Jesus alone.
By looking to Jesus, like Him thou shalt be;
Thy friends in thy conduct His likeness shall see.

Take time to be holy, let Him be thy Guide;
And run not before Him, whatever betide.
In joy or in sorrow, still follow the Lord,
And, looking to Jesus, still trust in His Word.

Take time to be holy, be calm in thy soul,
Each thought and each motive beneath His control.
Thus led by His Spirit to fountains of love,
Thou soon shalt be fitted for service above.

I know this doesn't seem like the normal Christmas letter that you would receive from your Pastor. Well guess what? This is no ordinary Christmas. Actually, I'm praying it's the most meaningful Christmas to date.

Don't be afraid to STOP! The Lord richly bless you and make His face to shine upon you.

Merry Christmas!

PRAYER

changes things

Greeting all,

The youth just had their annual Youth Christmas Program. Although it was done differently due to the pandemic, I think over all it was a success. A big part of that is due to technology that we have today.

The youth are currently meeting on Sunday evenings at 7:00PM via Zoom. If your youth would like to be included in the Zoom simply have them contact Darrin or myself (Sarah) so we can get them the weekly log in information.

This past Sunday (December 6) Pastor Doug talked about finding peace. True peace is something that many of us do not have. He talked about to have peace in your life one must have peace with God. As this year comes to an end, and the new year 2021 begins my personal goal is to have true peace with God, so I can have peace with not just myself, but my surroundings as well. I guess you can call it a New Year's resolution of sorts. But I am not going to refer to it as that because I STINK at New Year's resolutions. Let's call it a plan to better my life and to draw closer to God.

Thank you for the chance to serve,

Sarah Neal

In Memory

On November 16, 2020, our church lost an amazing member, Mr. Glen Edward Kersey. Glen graduated Bluefield High School in 1959, and went on to attend Virginia Polytechnic Institute, now Virginia Tech. Glen then went into a life of service, first in a 28 year commitment with the United States Air Force, where he received numerous medals and achievements for his work in radio communications. While in the Air Force, Glen traveled the world and loved talking about the places he was able to visit and the many interesting lives he met. After retiring from the military, Glen continued his life of service in the Post Offices of Texas, where again he enjoyed talking about the friends he met before his retirement. Glen was a people person and loved to talk about his boyhood life and his travels His favorite travel to talk about was how the Lord blessed him with health and a loving sister, Alice Kersey which enabled him to come back home to Bluefield and First Christian Church. Glen knew God was working in his life and never wanted to take that for granted. Glen talked about his health blessings many times and prayed for all of those who made the prayer warrior's list. Glen loved the Lord and often would become emotional by the goodness God had shown him and others. Glen proudly would show everyone who visited him, a declaration in honor of his Grandmother Kersey's service in our church. She made the communion bread every week for many years. He was so proud of her dedication. Glen loved attending our church and was a little embarrassed by having to drag his oxygen down the aisle. He had trouble standing, however made sure he did whenever needed during the service. We often discussed how our attendance made our week a little easier to travel. Glen loved to talk about the interesting people he met wherever he was in his journey through life and I loved to listen. I once told him how I loved talking to him because of his interesting life. He humbly told me he wasn't the least bit interesting compared to those he had met. We may have lost a prayer warrior and faithful member of our church; however, it was heaven's gain of a blessed angel. "I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course; I have kept the faith. In the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing."

TREASURER'S REPORT

Treasurer's Report

Below is the financial report for November 2020. God is good, all the time!! God continues to bless us as we are faithful to His call and guidance. You are being so faithful to keep up your gifts to God and His church (praise God for Give+ and the USPS!). Praise God for His faithfulness to His church! Praise God for each of you and your faithfulness to the ministries at FCC. I am grateful for your faithfulness to financially support God's work in this place.

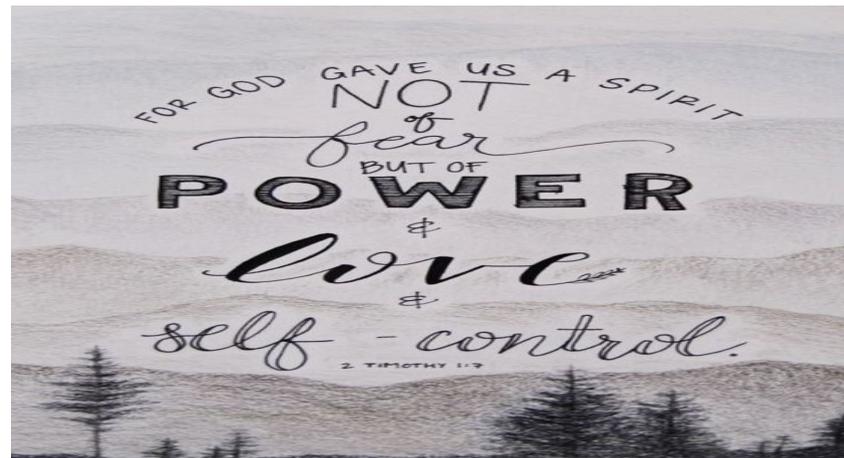

IT'S HERE: E-giving!! You can now make gifts to FCC online at the church website, www.bluefieldfcc.com, just click on the GIVE button and follow the directions. You can also download the Give+ mobile app to your smart phone. Sarah has more detailed instructions for the more technologically challenged among us. Just contact her if you need help. There is a charge for gifts made by debit or credit card, but you can also adjust your gift to help cover that cost as well.

As a reminder, please continue to check for LIGHTS, RUNNING TOILETS, A/C OR HEAT, etc. following all meetings at the church. Don't assume someone else will lock up or turn off. This really helps to hold down utility costs. Also, if you become aware of maintenance issues with the property, please bring it to the attention of the Property Ministry Team (Co-chairmen, George Birkelbach and Scott Collier) or the church office. Delayed repairs can be more expensive than when they are caught early.

Our Church is truly blessed!

My name is Darrin and I am a faithful believer in Jesus Christ.

I suffer from depression and am a suicide survivor and this is my story about CR at FCC Bluefield.

As I struggled for years with my depression I became a pack mule of sorts.. Carrying my burden alone. During my struggle I confided in friends here at FCC who were also Pack mules of sorts, carrying their own burdens. I have learned over the past 5 years that I am NOT ALONE and don't have to carry my burdens by myself. I have learned that I AM WORTHY of God's love and that I do indeed have a much needed purpose in this world that at one time I was looking for a way out of.

I work with a team of Pack Mules now so to speak. And me and my team of Mules (my FCC & FC family) help each other carry each others daily burdens of life.

If you have a burden and I can tell you for certain that you do, maybe you should come down to FCC on 2200 Bland Road and see what Love, Understanding and Helping your neighbor carry a load is all about.

God Bless,
Darrin Coe
PS I am a suicide SURVIOR because of FCC, CR and all of my Church Family

Thank You

Dear Congregation,
To the congregation as a whole and to each individual, I extend heartfelt thanks and appreciation for all of the prayers, cards, calls, texts, etc. directed to me during my recent bout with cancer. That support meant a great deal to me at the time. And, continues to this day. Recent 'scans' indicate no presence of cancer "anywhere" and my next 'check' is one year from now. Once again, my thanks to all. God is good!
In Christ,
Mark Johnson
